About The Kanyashree Prakalpa Scheme

Kanyashree is an initiative taken by the Government of West Bengal to improve the life and the status of the girls by helping economically backward families with cash so that families do not arrange the marriage of their girl child before eighteen years because of economic problem. The purpose of this initiative is to uplift those girls who are from poor families and thus can't pursue higher studies due to tough economic conditions and it reduces dropout rate and prevent early marriage also. It has been given international recognition by the United Nations Department of International Development and the UNICEF.

The scheme has two components:

1. Annual scholarship: The first is K1, an annual scholarship of Rs. 1000/- to be paid annually to the girls from 13 to 18 years of age group for every year that they remain in education, provided they are unmarried at the time. (Note: During the years 2013–14 and 2014-1 the annual scholarship was Rs. 500/-).
2. One time grant: The second benefit is K2, a one-time grant of 25,000/-, to be paid when girls turn 18, provided that they are engaged in an academic or occupations pursuit and are unmarried at the time

The term 'education' encompasses secondary and higher secondary education, as well as the various vocational, technical and sports courses available for this age group. To ensure an equity focus, the scheme is open only to girls from families whose annual income is R. 1,20,000/- or less. For girls with special needs, girls who have lost both parents, as well as for girls currently residing in Juvenile Justice Homes, this criterion is waived. Although the annual scholarship is payable only when girls reach Class VIII, this, criterion is waived for girls with special needs whose disability is 40% or more. In June 2017 United Nations honors Kanyashree with the highest public service award. Kanyashree was ranked the best among 552 such social sector schemes from across 62 countries that were nominated for the coveted award.

14 August is celebrated as Kanyashree Day to promote the scheme throughout the state. On August 14, 2013 state wide events were held to publicize the scheme. In Kolkata, the event was presided over by the honorable Chief Minister of West Bengal, Mamata Banerjee. Awareness campaigns were organized by the government in districts. On August 14, 2023 it is completed 10 years which was celebrated by Office o the District Magistrate & Collector, South 24 Parganas. Hence, on account of the observance of 10th Kanyashree Day on 14th August, 2023, our BUDGE BUDGE COLLEGE had been selected as top performer in Kanyashree Prakalpa for 2022-23.
