Puneet Sagar Abhiyan- On March 3, 2022, approximately 25 NCC cadets from Budge Budge College took part in a cleanliness drive organized by a nonprofit organization like NCC as part of the "Puneet Sagar Abhiyan," a national flagship campaign, to clean seashores of plastic and other waste while promoting the value of cleanliness. It was then expanded to include rivers and other bodies of water as part of a Pan-India year-round program. In keeping with the program's overarching concept, NCC Cadets from Budge Budge College cleaned up the Kalibari neighbourhood in Budge Budge Municipality. The NCC, the biggest organization for young individuals mobilized its cadets to gather plastic and other trash. Following its launch, the campaign gathered a lot of support, acceptance, and involvement. a variety of Ministries and Organizations. Since the start of the "Puneet Sagar Abhiyan," over 12 lakh NCC cadets, alumni, and volunteers have collected over 100 tonnes of plastic debris from about 1,900 sites, benefiting 1.5 crore people. More than 60 tonnes of about 100 tonnes of collected plastic debris have already been given to recycling.
